Dear Jack,

Thank you for the thoughtful letter, especially the reminder of how important “the moment when they open the envelope” is for these kids. This was [REDACTED] process...she owned it...and the sense of pride and accomplishment that “moment” created was powerful and important. Your reminder helped me better parent [REDACTED] Thank you for that.

You will be happy to know: [REDACTED] submitted her Enrollment Agreement Form last week, her mother [REDACTED] was able to register for the GAAP Open House April 12th-13th, and I am already stocking up on Hoya gear!

We are proud to join the Georgetown community.

Look forward to speaking soon. [REDACTED]
